

Clinical Trials Manager

Department: Clinical Affairs

Reporting to: Head of R&D Clinical Studies

Careers that Change Lives

We're a mission-driven leader in medical technology and solutions with a legacy of integrity and innovation. Join our team in Clinical Affairs and help shape policies that change lives.

Work with us to incentivize better patient care, and partner across the industry to make healthcare more affordable and accessible. Be a part of a community of experts committed to ensuring quality, affordable healthcare worldwide.

A Day in the Life

We offer you a position in which you will have the opportunity to be the Clinical trials activities focal point for a company acquired by the Minimally Invasive Therapies Group.

Among the various responsibilities:

- You will support R&D clinical trials activities
- You will design and write protocols and amendments for assigned clinical studies
- You will prepare ICF, investigator brochures, patient information sheet, CRF, study plans etc.
- You will execute clinical studies from initiation to COV till final report is obtained (including publications)
- You will work with investigators to ensure that the trial is meeting its targets, is producing meaningful output and to predict and plan any changes that warrant requests to changes in protocol, funding or time.
- You will organize investigator meetings
- You will train clinical study staff on all study procedures
- You will review interim and final reports
- You will prepare applications for ethics committee/IRB submissions
- You will assist in E-CRF design
- You will be attending international conferences to improve scientific knowledge and network

Must Have

- At minimum B.A/BSc/other in life sciences/ medical affairs/ other relevant field.
- At least 1-3 years of clinical trials management experience
- Ability to travel 30%

Nice to Haves

- At least 3 years in the medical device industry (very strong advantage)

Send resume via this link - <https://jobs.medtronic.com/jobs/clinical-trials-leader-60148>